HERBERT HOOVER BOYS & GIRLS CLUB HOSTS ANNUAL TABLE FOR FOUR LUNCHEON

Please join the Herbert Hoover Boys & Girls Club (HHBGC) at the Club's fourth annual luncheon event, Table for Four. This event will be held on Wednesday, March 16 at the Ritz-Carlton, St. Louis 11:30 a.m. Co-chairs are Laurna Godwin of Vector Communications and Becky Kueker of Arcturis. The event features silent, live auctions, dinner and live entertainment.

The Club's Youth of the Year, Ashleigh Smith and her mother Paula Lewis will share the positive impact that HHBGC has had on their life. Proceeds from the event will support girls' programs at the Club. Over 200 guests are expected to attend.

About Herbert Hoover Boys & Girls Club

With a mission to inspire and enable youth ages 6 to 18 to realize their full potential as productive, responsible and caring citizens, the Herbert Hoover Boys & Girls Club has been providing a safe place for children to learn and grow for over 40 years. HHBGC is a charter member of Boys & Girls Clubs of America, the oldest and fastest growing youth servicing agency in the country. With an annual membership of over 3,500 Herbert Hoover Boys & Girls Cub serves 400 youth each day and is open 48 weeks a year, five days a week during the school year and offers an eight-week camp during the summer. The Club offers programs in five core areas to develop life skills to improve prospects for success. These core areas include character and leadership development, education and career development, health and life skills, the arts, and sports, and fitness and recreation. The Club has 4 centers in St. Louis – the original site located on the site of historic Sportsman's Park, in the Forest Park Southeast neighborhood at Adams Park Community Center and in North County at the Hazelwood Southeast Middle School and East Middle School.
