CELEBRATES OPENING OF

Teen Center of Excellence in Ferguson, MO

First in the Country Center to Focus on Serving Teens ages 12-18 in the St. Louis Area

Construction partners on the project were Arcturis, KAI Design and Build, and The Striler Group.

Friends, partners and supporters from across the region came together to celebrate the opening of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater St. Louis - Teen Center of Excellence. The $12.4M center, located in Ferguson, Missouri is one of the first of its kind in the country, serving ages 12-18 and giving them a place of their own to be with friends, express their creativity, acquire new skills, and learn what it means to be an engaged citizen.

In an effort to address the developmental needs of area children, particularly in communities with few options and limited access, Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater St. Louis was encouraged by civic and community leaders to expand its presence in north St. Louis County. Several school-based program sites were established and the Teen Center was conceived. The 26,856 square-foot facility is strategically located on West Florissant Avenue surrounded by four school districts. Features of the facility include a nutrition education center, outdoor garden, gymnasium, intellectual commons, theater, green and drama room, fitness zone, gaming room, music and art studio, innovation center and office space.

BGCSTL president, Dr. Flint Fowler says of the opening, "This is certainly a proud moment in the history of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater St. Louis. Teens deserve a safe place to grow and learn, exercise their creativity, explore their interests, and build meaningful relationships with peers and caring adults. Imagine how wonderful it would be if every community committed this level of support for children. We are also excited to be a part of the wave of development along West Florissant including the Urban League of Metropolitan St. Louis's Empowerment Center and Plaza, the street scape project, Mercy Health Clinic and development of the Maline Greenway."

Research indicates that teens can thrive in spaces structured around responsibility, belonging, and leadership modeling. Caring, trained adults are necessary to help teens build their assets and promote responsible decision-making skills. Data also shows that they want a space that provides respite from the pressures of school, family responsibilities or the danger of the streets; a place where they can have positive interactions with peers, meet new friends and take advantage of informal relationships with adults who assist them in their area of interest. The Club works with teens as they learn to think critically, use their voice in healthy ways, and discover who they are and how their purpose intersects with their world. It is through this work that hope thrives and opportunities are presented.

Programming includes an emphasis on health & wellness (i.e. yoga, nutrition education, healthy habits, open gym), education & workforce readiness (i.e. college tours, ACT/SAT prep, tutoring, career exploration, internships and summer employment), STEAM (i.e. visual and performing arts, coding, app creation, robotics), and leadership & civic engagement (i.e., community service, candidate and issue forums, advocacy work).

"At Boys & Girls Clubs, we know that keeping teens engaged in experiences at our Clubs, translates to positive outcomes around graduating from high school, abstaining from drugs and alcohol, and preparing for a great future," said Jim Clark, president and CEO of Boys & Girls Clubs of America. "We can clearly see our future, by how we set up our kids and teens to be successful. The time young people spend after-school and during the summer is critical for ensuring all kids and teens have the same opportunities and experiences. I applaud Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater St. Louis for creating dynamic spaces and programming for the new Teen Center of Excellence, which will make a positive impact on young people in this community for years to come."

Construction partners on the project were Arcturis, KAI Design and Build, and The Striler Group.

MENTOR HIGHLIGHTS

RITA FITZJARRELL

Rita Fitzjarrell has been a mentor through our Mentor St. Louis (MSL) program for over eight years, serving at Sherman School then Adams Park Club. She strives diligently to volunteer at least 40 hours each month! Rita was so inspired by her experiences with members that she requested and received a $500 employee volunteer grant from MasterCard where she works on behalf of MSL. She was effective in as a mentor because the children trust her. Rita is someone they confide because of her personal interests in their individual success. She even took the time to meet one of the student's parents (who works in the cafeteria at Adams Elementary) to share how well her son was performing with MSL. Rita has also participated in various volunteer projects at the Club including the MSL Supply Closet initiative, and Story Design Curriculum Strategy & Trial Runs program.

Rita says of the MSL program, "After I retired I continued volunteering because this is such a valuable program, not just for the students, but for the mentors. I have learned that the students have so much to offer. They teach me about their families, neighborhoods and how they see the world. I see them getting so excited to be in the program and they try to work hard to accomplish any task thrown at them. Actually, I leave each session so happy and uplifted." "Mentor St. Louis" she added, "has always been a rewarding program for me, but this year Syerra has taken the program to the next level and made it even better. She introduced a new reading program, which seemed to help the students with comprehension, understanding themes and increased their vocabulary, while expanding on their creativity."

KAHALIA ADAMS

2019 YOUTH OF THE YEAR

The 2019 Youth of the Year winner was Kahalia Adams. The 18-year old Parkway North High senior has been a member of the Herbert Hoover Club for ten years. She spent the past year representing the Club at a variety of special events including the grand opening of the Teen Center of Excellence. Kahalia is a recipient of the Wanda and Michael DeHaven Youth of the Year $5,000 scholarship, and a Honda Accord courtesy of the Frank Leta Automotive Group, and threw out the first pitch at a St. Louis Cardinals baseball game! She also represented BGCSTL at the Missouri Youth of the Year competition held at the state capital.

During her speech, Kahalia reflected on the impact the Boys & Girls Clubs had on her life, saying, "Being a member gives me the opportunity to be around like-minded individuals who aspire to be more than our current situations. The Club impacted my life tremendously by giving me a controlled environment to thrive in. I believe that my divine purpose involves leading my generation by example; while setting the tone for the youth and the elders by carrying myself with the respect and dignity I expect from others. These things would be unattainable for me without the guidance of the Club. The Club has not only shaped me into the young lady I am, but it is grooming me for the type of women that I want to become".

Kahalia plans to fulfill her purpose and use her voice to positively influence young people across the nation and attend her dream college, Jackson State University.

DANIELLE KAIN

2020 YOUTH OF THE YEAR

The 2020 Youth of the Year is Danielle Kain! Danielle is a 16-year-old junior at MICDS and eight-year member of the Ferguson Middle School Club. As a result of winning this extraordinary honor, she will serve as the voice for thousands of boys and girls who attend our Clubs. Like previous winners, she received the $5,000 Wanda and Michael DeHaven Youth of the Year Scholarship, a $4,000 Missouri State University Youth of the Year scholarship, a celebratory dinner courtesy of the Saint Louis Club, and a car donated by the Frank Leta Automotive Group! Danielle plans to become an Aerospace Engineer.

Most days at the Club you can find Danielle engaged in the Music Studio, or immersed in robotics or other STEM programming. She says the Club has been a constant source of support throughout her journey. During her time at the Club she has won the BGCA Hank Aaron Scholarship Award, allowing her to purchase STEM materials and equipment to provide sessions for elementary, middle, and high school Club members; participated as a teen panelist at Harris Stowe State University's Spark the Mind Advancing the Agenda for African Americans in STEM event, which led to her unforgettable personal meeting of Aprille Ericsson, current aerospace engineer for NASA; competed for the nationwide 2019 STEP Ahead Awards and won 1st Place in the high school division, which included an all-inclusive trip to Washington, D.C; and also received the Joan Elyn Silber Award for Volunteerism and Leadership. Danielle has shared her Boys & Girls Club experiences on television and at events throughout the region.

Being named Youth of the Year is the highest honor a Boys & Girls Club member can receive, and is the signature national youth recognition program that celebrates the recipient's contributions to their family, school, community, and their Boys & Girls Club.

Ahmad Hicks

KSDK Sports Reporter

Herbert Hoover Club Member: Ages 6-13

Club Impact: My most memorable experience at Herbert Hoover happened to be a trip to Six Flags at the end of the summer during my final year at camp. I had a group of friends, we were the cool kids you could say. But yet when we got to the amusement park, none of us would go on rollercoasters. Some cool kids, right? After a few pep talks, we all found the courage to ride and had the time of our lives. I'll never forget that day and how we overcame our fears together.

Being a member of Club introduced me to all kinds of backgrounds and kids all over St. Louis. It was because of HHC that I'm so connected to people all over the city. I met friends for life, and learned that not every young black kid is the same. I learned to adapt and accept everyone for who they are, no matter where they come from or how they looked, which helps a great deal being a journalist now.

Without Herbert Hoover and their countless sports teams, coaches, and their summer program, I wouldn't be the man I am today. I'm glad to have spent the majority of my childhood there.

Inducted five new former Club members into the BGCSTL Alumni Hall of Honor and celebrated staff, board members, volunteers and supporters for their commitment to mission at the Annual Recognition Event. The 2019 inductees are Mark Collins, III, Precious Johnson, Alaina Lopes, Cardin Dean Rackley, Mark Stallion, and, Kal-El Waters-Jones. The Hall of Honor recognizes outstanding alumni for achievements in their respective fields, commitment to leadership, serving our community's youth, contributions to the St. Louis community and for living out the mission of the Boys & Girls Club.

Paris Thompson

Nike Experience Cross Trainer, Nike
Herbert Hoover Club Member: 2005

Club Impact: I joined the Club much later than my peers who always spoke so highly of their experiences! My sophomore year, I joined and quickly realized how cool it was to be associated with such a beautiful space. I joined Keystone Leadership Club and had the opportunity to help host during the reopening of the new portion of the Herbert Hoover Club. Some of the attendees were so impressed they sent a letter to Ms. Liz. That meant the world to me at the time! The relationship I was able to build with Ms. Liz carried into my adult life and has often served as a barometer for how I show up in my community currently. Being a part of the Club, is truly one of my life's greatest experiences."

Dr. James Paine

Chief Operating Officer, CareSTL Health
Herbert Hoover Club Member: 1985-1988

Club Impact: My time at the Club was imperative to my growth and personal development. It really helped shape my understanding around the value of teams, fair, yet 'fully engaged' competition, and it taught me how to learn from and receive coaching. My favorite activity was basketball, and the Club was the place where I fell in love with competition.

Rashidah Ivory

Educator
Herbert Hoover Club Member: 1997-2001

Club Impact: I was the Billingsley 1999 Youth of the year Honoree. I participated in the afterschool tutoring program where I was able to assist with tutoring younger Club members. I learned a lot about team sports, and music. I played foosball almost every day, and spent many hours playing and teaching basketball to my peers and younger campers. During my years at Herbert Hoover I developed many positive relationships that are still dear to me today. The Club has always been big on creating a safe, positive environment and offering opportunities for Club members to develop positive supportive relationships not only with adults but with other members within the community. I learned through various programs how important it is to reach my full potential. As I began to develop into young adulthood, I relied heavily on the life skills I acquired as a participant and the strategies I learned helped me develop positive relationships with people. I am currently a teacher and have coined some of those same principles and strategies that impacted my life as a Club member. Those life skills have helped me not only be able to positively impact my students but also give their parents some strategies that they can use and resources that can help them at home, and within their own community.

MEMBER MOMENTS

Maurice M.

Age 12

Teen Center of Excellence

Maurice was one of the first members to sign up after the opening of the Teen Center of Excellence. He discovered the Club when his school had the opportunity to tour the facility and participate in an abbreviated version of its many programs. Later that evening, Maurice and his sister walked from their home with applications in hand to register for memberships! Maurice loves participating in every program but he takes particular interest in Music Studio and Innovation Center. S.T.E.A.M. Manager, Ms. Angel stated, "Maurice is a brilliant coder and loves to help others." Maurice can program a robot to dance and walk through a maze in less than two hours. In the Music Studio, he is very attentive and creative and after grasping concepts, he returned a day later with lyrics using real life examples, ready to record. Maurice boldly navigates through life using this same level of enthusiasm.

TeShaun D.

Age 12

Herbert Hoover Club Member

TeShaun has been a Club member for five years. Although he takes full advantage of all Club programs, the Triple Play program is his favorite and, has assisted in the development of social skills that will benefit him for a lifetime. During the initial stages of his membership, TeShaun was extremely shy and quiet however, he has overcome those obstacles and is now one of the most energetic members we have! His participation in activities has positively influenced his interpersonal skills tremendously. The Triple Play activities that TeShaun enjoys are kickball and basketball.

Troy S.

Teen Center of Excellence

Troy received news that he was selected to be a performer at the 2019 Boys & Girls Clubs of America National Conference in Houston, Texas. His entry was one of only ten selected from over 110 audition videos. As part of the honor, Troy participated in a series of virtual coaching sessions with a BGCA expert vocal, movement and performance coach. He sang at the opening and closing sessions of the conference, and many times during the event!

The greatest surprise to Troy (and everyone in attendance) was being named the first ever Aryana Pizarro "Fly Right" Award winner during the conference's closing event. The recognition is in honor of Aryana Pizarro who served as the first National Conference Youth Talent Ambassador and lost her life in a terrible car accident. Troy was nominated by his peer performers because he embodied Aryana's spirit of kindness, collaboration and character. To honor this occasion, Boys & Girls Clubs of America awarded Troy a $12,000 scholarship! Congratulations Troy and thanks for proudly representing BGCSTL.
